- C. Is the liaison judge to the magistrate judges in the Houston Division.

26. Houston Miscellaneous Docket

- A. The miscellaneous docket in the Houston Division consists of those matters that arise before a civil or criminal proceeding is filed and assigned to a judge, like naturalization ceremonies, grants of immunity to witnesses, and in forma pauperis applications.
- B. The miscellaneous docket judge summons and empanels grand and petit juries.
- C. Applications for restraining orders, preliminary injunctions, and similar emergency matters are to be handled by the judge to whom the matter is assigned. If that judge is not available and if the application requires immediate action, the assigned judge's staff will take it to the judge in charge of the miscellaneous docket.
- D. The miscellaneous docket duties may be exchanged by consent with notice to the clerk and the chief judge.
- E. The schedule for the Houston Division miscellaneous docket is Appendix A.

27. Attorney Admissions

- A. The Clerk shall present any attorney admission exemption requests (e.g., renewal after expiration, waiver of workshop requirement, substitution of references, etc.) to the judge assigned to the miscellaneous docket. That judge may either decide the admission question or submit the issue to the Attorney Admission Committee.
- B. Applications for reinstatement due to prior disciplinary action will be submitted to the Attorney Admission Committee for recommendation and then forwarded to the chief judge for consideration by the full Court.

28. Bankruptcy Matters

- A. "Bankruptcy matters" are: (1) appeals from decisions of bankruptcy judges, (2) motions to withdraw the reference of bankruptcy cases or of adversary proceedings, (3) reports and recommendations by the bankruptcy judges, and (4) applications for writ of mandamus to a bankruptcy judge.
- B. The initial bankruptcy matter associated with a particular bankruptcy case will be randomly assigned to a district judge the same as any other civil matter.

- C. All later bankruptcy matters associated with that bankruptcy case will be assigned to the district judge who handled the initial bankruptcy matter, whether the initial matter is open or closed.

29. General

- A. Whenever a judge is disqualified or recused in a case, the case initially shall be reassigned to another judge stationed in that division, according to the customary assignment procedure in that division. If all judges in a division are recused or disqualified, the case shall be reassigned as follows: a case in the Galveston Division shall be randomly assigned to a judge in the Houston Division; a case in the Victoria Division shall be randomly assigned to a judge in the Corpus Christi Division; a case in the Corpus Christi Division shall be randomly assigned to a judge in the McAllen Division; a case in either the Laredo, McAllen, or Brownsville Divisions shall be randomly assigned to a judge within one of those three divisions. Any reassignment otherwise required will be done by the chief judge.
- B. Nothing in this order deprives a judge of jurisdiction in a matter. A judge may handle matters for another judge by consent.
- C. Matters affecting a liaison assignment should be brought first to the attention of the liaison judge who may handle routine administrative matters. Emergency questions involving court policies will be discussed with the chief judge and may be resolved by the liaison judge and chief judge. The chief judge shall report the emergency to the full court for discussion as promptly as possible.
- D. Judge Bennett is appointed Chair of the Attorney Admission Fund Committee, and Judge Rainey is assigned as a member of that committee.
- E. Judge Hughes is appointed Chair of the Committee on Court Portraits, and Judge Hittner and Judge Tagle are assigned as members of that committee.
- F. Judge Garcia Marmolejo is appointed Chair of the Court Information Technology Committee, and Judge Hanen, Judge Crane, Judge Gonzales Ramos, Judge Atlas, Chief Bankruptcy Judge Jones and Magistrate Judge Ormsby shall serve as the judicial officer members of that committee.
- G. Judge Hittner is appointed Chair of the Court Reporter Liaison Panel, and Judge Gilmore and Judge Rainey are assigned as members of that Panel.
- H. The assignment of magistrate judges to district judges is Appendix B.

- I. The chief judge will call meetings of the full court as needed and will select the time and place of the meetings.

ORDERED this the 2d day of January 2019.

LEE H. ROSENTHAL
CHIEF JUDGE
