IN RE ENRON CORP. SECURITIES, DERIVATIVE & "ERISA" LITIGATION	§	MDL 1446
MARK NEWBY, et al., vs. ENRON CORP., et al.	§	CA H-01-3624 AND CONSOLIDATED CASES
PAMELA M. TITTLE, et al. vs. ENRON CORP., et al.	§	CA H-01-3913 AND CONSOLIDATED CASES

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Portland General Electric Company has moved to protect specified privileged, confidential and proprietary documents, which have been placed in the Document Depository by Arthur Andersen. The motion is supported by affidavit demonstrating that good cause exists to protect Movant's confidential information.

Movants have conformed in all respects with the Court's requirements that a person seeking protection must in good faith move for a particularized protective order pursuant to Rule 26(c) and describe a properly demarcated category of legitimately confidential information. The following files and Bates numbered documents constitute or may contain Portland General Electric Company's confidential information:

Based on (1) Movant's showing that good cause exists to protect the foregoing confidential, privileged, or proprietary information of Portland General Electric Company from public disclosure because harm may be done to significant assets of the Enron Corp. estate and (2) the fact that Portland General Electric Company's documents placed in the Document Depository by Arthur Andersen have been demarcated by Portland General Electric Company as confidential in good faith, Movant's confidential documents identified herein should be, and hereby are, protected from disclosure pending further order of the Court.

Therefore, the motion is GRANTED, subject to further order of this Court, and without prejudice to the right of any party and any interested member of the public to challenge the secreting of particular documents.

Signed in Houston, Texas on this 15th day of March, 2004.

Melinda Harmon

United States District Judge
