plan confirmations

Counsel may set for hearing all OTHER electronically-filed pleadings requiring less the 30 minutes of court time in adversary proceedings, chapter 7 main cases, and in non-complex chapter 11 main cases. Miscellaneous motions shall be set for the dates and times shown below. You must serve notice of your motion and hearing date in accordance with applicable federal and local rules and file a certificate of service. Once your motion is set using the self-scheduling procedure, continuances may be granted only by written motion and court order. If our setting fails to comply with these instructions, applicable notice requirements, or you fail to appear for your setting, your motion may be dismissed. At the Court's discretion, your motion may be reset by Judge Brown's case manager, in which event you will be contacted to serve another notice of hearing.
