

Informix Administrator

09/29/2006 03:00 PM

To Attorneys

cc

Subject Payment Advices Certification

The Court has posted a payment advices certification that may be filed by a debtor immediately after the petition is filed. If the debtor files this certification, the absence of payment advices will not be noted on the Court's standard order regarding the possibility of dismissal of the case under § 521. The certification, if made, is made under penalty or perjury.

Click here to view the new form.

<http://www.txs.uscourts.gov/bankruptcy/rulesformsproc/payadvcert.pdf>