1. CONTACT WITH COURT PERSONNEL

- A. The Court requires that parties file documents through the District Court's Case Management/Electronic Case Filing ("CM/ECF") System. See Southern District Local Rule 5.1 and the District's Administrative Procedures for CM/ECF (as amended and available at www.txs.uscourts.gov).
- B. Case-related telephone and email inquiries should be made only to the Case Manager. Inquiries should not be made to the Court's law clerks, nor to the Judge.
- C. Information about the status of documents, entry of orders, or docket entries should be obtained from the CM/ECF or Pacer Systems, or if absolutely necessary, from the United States District Clerk's Office ((409) 766-3530).
- D. The Court's caseload does not allow the Case Manager to respond to casual telephone inquiries about the status of motions or cases.
- E. Correspondence with the Court must be sent to the Court's Chambers as follows:

1. Case-related correspondence should be addressed to:

Cathy Carnew
Case Manager to Judge George C. Hanks, Jr.
United States Courthouse
601 Rosenberg, Room 411
Galveston, TX 77550
Or by email:
galveston\_cm@txs.uscourts.gov

2. Letters or emails should be used for minor procedural matters and for discovery disputes. Do not address substantive issues in letter or email form. The parties must also file copies of all letters via CM/ECF. Email correspondence with the Court will be docketed at the Court's discretion.
3. Copies of urgent documents (including letters) may be sent by First Class Mail or hand-delivered to Chambers (see Emergencies, § 3 below), or emailed to the Court's Case Manager. Service copies must be transmitted to all counsel of record prior to and in the same manner as the document is transmitted to the Court. The documents may not be faxed without express prior permission of the Court. (Note: If a document is emailed to the Court through the Case Manager after 4:30 p.m., the Judge may not see the document until the next morning.)

2. COURTESY COPIES OF DOCUMENTS

- A. The parties must promptly deliver to Chambers courtesy copies of:
- (i) documents fifty (50) pages or more in length (including exhibits and attachments), and
  - (ii) documents pertaining to matters being heard by the Court within seven days after the document is filed, and
  - (iii) documents for which courtesy copies are required by § 7A, Motions and Memoranda of Law.

Parties may deliver to Chambers courtesy copies of other documents.

- B. Do NOT fax or email copies of documents to Chambers unless specifically authorized to do so by the Court.

3. EMERGENCIES

- A. Applications for immediate relief must be filed electronically through the CM/ECF system and all related communications with the Court must be through the Case Manager. Such applications shall be presented to the Court by the Case Manager following counsel's affirmation that the opposing party has been contacted and that both parties can be available for a conference before the Court, or an explanation of why such contact has not been made.
- B. Motions for extension of deadlines or cut-off dates in the Docket Control Order are not emergencies. (See Continuances, § 4 below.)

4. CONTINUANCES

- A. Agreements or joint motions among counsel for continuance are not binding on the Court. Motions for continuance will be granted only at the Court's discretion.
- B. Vacation requests will be respected if they are made well in advance of a trial setting or hearing date.
- C. A trial will not be continued because of the unavailability of a witness. Counsel are expected to anticipate such possibilities and should be prepared to present testimony by written deposition, videotaped deposition, or by stipulation.

5. APPEARANCES AND CONFERENCES

- A. An attorney who appears at a hearing or conference MUST
  - 1. be familiar with the case, and
  - 2. have authority to bind the client.
- B. Out-of-town counsel wishing to appear at a conference or hearing by telephone must submit a written request by email to the Case Manager as far in advance of the conference as reasonably possible. The Court will attempt to accommodate such requests.
- C. Counsel and pro se parties shall notify the Case Manager immediately in writing of the parties' settlement of any matter before the court. Upon receipt of a notice that the entire case is settled, the Court may enter a conditional order of dismissal.
- D. Failure to appear when notified of a setting may subject an attorney and/or his or her client to sanctions, including dismissal for want of prosecution and/or other appropriate order or judgment.
- E. Motions for admission pro hac vice shall include the attorney applicant's averment that he or she has familiarized him/herself with the Local Rules of the Southern District of Texas and these Procedures.

6. MOTION PRACTICE

- A. General Guidelines: The Court follows the written motion practice described in the Local Rules. In addition, the following procedures apply.
  - 1. Counsel must make serious and timely efforts to confer with opposing counsel on all motions to try to reach agreements on the relief requested.
  - 2. Every non-dispositive motion must contain a certificate of conference and a proposed order granting the relief sought. Failure to comply may result in the motion being denied or stricken.
  - 3. All motions except motions pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedures 56 must be accompanied by a separate proposed order granting or denying the relief requested. Do not submit a proposed order that contains a bare signature block. Instead, include a few lines of substantive text above the page containing the signature block.

4. Pursuant to Local Rule 7.3, opposed motions may be considered by the Court after expiration of 21 days from the motion filing date, without notice from the Court. Unless the Court issues a briefing schedule, responses by the nonmovant must be filed within 21 days of the motion. See Local Rule 7.4. Movant may file a reply within seven calendar days after the non-movant's response. No further briefing should be filed without leave of Court.

When circumstances dictate, the Court may consider a motion prior to expiration of the 21-day period.

5. Any party wishing to make a discovery or scheduling motion should arrange for a conference with the Court before submission of any motion papers. See "Discovery and Scheduling Disputes" below.
6. Because most motions will be ruled on without an oral hearing, focused, clear motion papers are very important. (See Motions and Memorandum of Law, § 4 below) Requests for oral argument on motions are not necessary. The Case Manager will notify counsel should the Court determine that oral argument would be beneficial.
7. All pleadings or other documents filed under seal in a civil case must be identified as SEALED and by the title of the document. For example, a motion for summary judgment filed under seal must be docketed as "MOTION for Summary Judgment (SEALED)." No pleading may be filed for docketing simply as "SEALED DOCUMENT" without advance permission of the Court.
8. Counsel and pro se parties are directed to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(b)(1), which allows extension of deadlines upon a showing of "good cause." In most cases, the Court will be inclined to grant the first, unopposed motion to extend a particular deadline as a matter of courtesy, so long as that motion recites sufficient cause and is submitted before the deadline in question. Second motions for extension of time will be granted on a case-by-case basis. Third motions for extension of time are disfavored but will be granted in extraordinary circumstances. Motions made after a deadline should comply with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(b)(2).

B. Submitted Motions – Need for Expedited Decision:

1. The Court will rule on motions as soon as possible after the submission day or a response is filed. Counsel of record and pro se parties will be furnished with copies of orders.
2. If a pending motion requires resolution on an expedited basis, please advise the Court by letter.

C. Discovery and Scheduling Disputes: Most discovery and scheduling disputes can and should be resolved by counsel without the intervention of the Court. Compromise is encouraged.

1. Counsel are responsible for conferring in good faith to resolve discovery and scheduling disputes. If counsel for the parties are unable to reach an agreement, a conference with the Court must be sought by a joint letter filed with the Court. The parties should file a joint letter that does not exceed 2 pages, outlining the issue. The letter MUST specify the date, time and place of the parties' prior out-of-court discovery or scheduling discussion(s), the results of the discussions, and the names of all counsel participating therein. If counsel has been unable to confer because of the unavailability or unwillingness of certain counsel to do so, the statement shall recite the facts concerning attempts to confer.
2. The Court will dispose of discovery disputes at the conference to the extent possible. If a written motion is necessary, the issues to be addressed and a briefing schedule will be set during the conference.
3. If relief is sought against a non-party to the litigation, the relief may be sought by motion.
4. If the dispute for which the Court's intervention is sought involves the discovery of electronic data, the parties shall bring or have available by telephone at the conference a person with detailed knowledge of the computers and electronic databases at issue. This computer and database expertise will permit reliable responses to the Court's inquiries and will assist the Court in developing an appropriate resolution of the dispute.
5. The Court strictly enforces the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules with regard to disclosure and discovery.

**Counsel should use a numbering system during the discovery process to allow for the orderly discussion of documents during the discovery and pretrial process.****

7. MOTIONS AND MEMORANDA OF LAW

A. Page Limits and Briefing Requirements: The Court requires concise, pertinent and well-organized motions and memoranda of law. Without leave of Court, any motion, brief, or memorandum shall be limited to 25 pages, 13-point type-font, double-spaced, with 1" margins. Any motion, brief, or memorandum that has more than ten (10) pages of argument must contain the following eight (8) items. All motions, briefs and memoranda must contain items 3, 4, 6, and 7 below.

1. A table of contents with the page number of each section, including all headings designated in the body of the motion, brief, or memorandum.
2. A short statement of the nature and stage of the proceeding.
3. A statement of the issues to be ruled upon by the Court and, with respect to each issue, a short statement (supported by legal authority) of the standard of review.
4. A short summary of the argument.
5. Succinct headings dividing the argument into separate points.
6. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.
7. All motions must contain a proposed order setting forth the relief requested by the movant. (This order is not included in the 25-page limit).

B. Copies of Authorities and Other Material Cited:

1. Please append copies of cases and the relevant parts of authorities that are cited only if the authorities are not found in commonly used resources such as the United States Code, United States Supreme Court Reporter, Federal Reporters, Federal Rules Decisions, Federal Supplement, Southwestern Reporter Second or Third, Vernon's Revised Statutes and Codes Annotated. Unpublished authorities that are easily available on Westlaw or Lexis also need not be provided to the Court.
2. Copies of supporting affidavits, deposition testimony excerpts, and other discovery evidence referred to in the motion, brief, or memorandum should be separately filed in one or more appendices.
3. All appendices should contain a table of contents, and courtesy copies of appendices or those filed conventionally (i.e., not electronically) should be tabbed at the right margin to facilitate location of the materials cited.

8. INITIAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCES AND DOCKET CONTROL ORDERS

Please refer to Local Rule 16.1 and the Court's Form Order for Conference. See §5 supra ("Appearances and Conferences") for general procedures for conferences. In addition:

- A. A Joint Discovery/Case Management Plan (in the attached form) must be filed at least seven business days before the Initial Pretrial Conference in Civil cases.
- B. At the Initial Pretrial Conference in civil cases, the Court will enter a Docket Control Order. Attached is a form of the Docket Control Order used by the Court.
  - 1. The parties may agree on deadlines for completion of pretrial matters and bring a proposed Docket Control Order to the Initial Pretrial Conference.
  - 2. The Docket Control Order will govern throughout the case. The Docket Control Order deadlines shall not be modified except by leave of this Court upon a showing of good cause or to prevent manifest injustice.
  - 3. If a change to an existing Docket Control Order is requested, the parties shall submit recommendations for adjusting all dates in the Docket Control Order that follow the date sought to be modified.
- C. Additional Parties: If new parties are joined after entry of the Docket Control Order, the party causing such joinder shall provide to the new parties: (i) copies of all orders and pleadings previously filed in the case, (ii) the operative Docket Control Order, and (iii) these Court Procedures.

  - 1. Plaintiff is responsible for ensuring that a complete Joint Pretrial Order is filed timely. A form Joint Pretrial Order is attached. It should be followed, but may be adapted, within reason, to accommodate the size and nature of the case. If the plaintiff fails to file the Joint Pretrial Order, then the defendant is responsible for filing defendant's portions of a Proposed Pretrial Order in the Joint Pretrial Order format.

2. Failure to timely file a Joint Pretrial Order will subject counsel and clients to sanctions, including dismissal for want of prosecution and/or other appropriate relief. This applies also to parties appearing pro se.
4. In civil cases, a Joint Pretrial Order should comply with the disclosure requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3).

B. Other Required Documents: With the filing of the Joint Pretrial Order, each party should also file a separate copy of each of the following documents:

  - b. The parties shall include in the proposed jury charge all necessary instructions or definitions. The instructions shall, at a minimum, include: (1) the prima facie elements of each cause of action and defense asserted, (2) legal definitions required by the jury, (3) items of damages, and (4) methods of calculation of damages. Counsel are to use the Fifth Circuit Pattern Jury Instructions, as modified by case law or statutory amendments, whenever possible. Any deviations must be identified, and accompanied with legal authorities for the proposed deviation.
  - c. Even if the parties, in good faith, cannot agree on all instructions, definitions, or questions, the parties should nonetheless submit a single, unified charge. Each disputed instruction, definition, or question should be set out in bold type, underlined or italics and identified as disputed. Each disputed item should be labelled to show which party is requesting the disputed language. Accompanying each instruction shall be all authority or related materials upon which each party relies.

10. TRIAL SETTINGS

- A. Civil cases: A civil case may be assigned either (1) a firm trial setting or (2) a Docket Call date. Docket Call is a final pretrial conference. Parties should be prepared to answer questions on all pending motions or the Joint Pretrial Order. Pending motions may be ruled on at Docket Call. Trial may be set for any day after the Docket Call.
- B. Unless an attorney has actually commenced trial in another court, prior trial settings will not cause the Court to pass a trial setting in a case.
- C. Information on Trial Settings: The Case Manager cannot definitively ascertain when a case will be reached or where a case is on the trial docket. Any predictions given by the Case Manager are only “educated guesses” and are NOT binding on the Court.

11. EXHIBITS

- A. Civil cases: All exhibits must be pre-marked and exchanged among counsel at the time the Joint Pretrial Order is filed. JOINT PRETRIAL ORDER

[See generally Judge Hanks' Court Procedures]

Appearance of Counsel

List the parties, their respective counsel, and the mailing addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers of counsel in separate paragraphs.

Statement of the Case

Give a brief agreed statement of the case for the information of the Court. The Court may read this statement to the jury panel to see whether any member of the panel is acquainted with the facts or parties in the case. Include names, dates and places.

Jurisdiction

Briefly explain why this Court has full and complete jurisdiction over the subject matter and the parties in this case. If there is an unresolved jurisdictional question, state the problem.

Motions

Identify any pending motions.

Contentions of the Parties

In separate paragraphs, give a concise statement of each party's contentions and claims.

Admissions of Fact

List all facts that have been stipulated to.

Contested Issues of Fact

List all factual disputes that are necessary to the final disposition of this case.

Agreed Applicable Propositions of Law

Delineate those legal propositions not in dispute.

Contested Issues of Law

Briefly state the issues of law in dispute. Along with this Joint Pretrial Order, each party or side should submit a memorandum of law to address these issues in more depth.

Exhibits and Exhibit List

The Court strictly enforces the rules regarding disclosure and discovery. Counsel should use a Bates numbering system during discovery to allow for the orderly discussion of documents during the pretrial process.

Each party must attach an Exhibit List (in the form shown by Attachment A or a similar form) of all exhibits offered, and all parties must provide copies of their listed exhibits to opposing counsel by the date specified by the Court. (This rule also applies to summaries and rebuttal exhibits, except in the limited circumstances when exhibits cannot be anticipated.) The Exhibit List should provide a clear, concise description of each exhibit, with a Bates number from the discovery process where applicable.

Any counsel requiring authentication of an exhibit must so notify the offering counsel in writing within seven days after the exhibit is made available to opposing counsel for examination. Failure to do so is an admission of authenticity. See S.D. TEXAS LOCAL RULE 44.1.

At the Court's discretion, exhibits listed in the final pretrial order may be admitted into evidence unless opposing counsel files written objections within the time called for in the Local Rules.

The offering party should mark its own exhibits prior to trial and include the party's name, case number, and exhibit number on each exhibit to be offered. (Example: Smith Construction, 3:10-cv-0010, Ex. 1.)

Witnesses and Witness List

List the names and addresses of witnesses who will or may be called and include a brief statement of the subject matter and substance of their testimony, as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3).

If a witness is to appear by deposition, cite the inclusive pages and lines to be read or submitted. Objections to those portions (citing pages and lines) with supporting authority must be filed within seven days after the joint pretrial order is filed.

In the event there are any other witnesses to be called at the trial, their names, addresses and the subject matter of their testimony must be reported to opposing counsel as soon as they are known.
