ORDER

Pending before the Court in the above referenced cause is Defendant Citigroup, Inc.'s clarification (instrument #2947) regarding confusion in the docketing of two orders (#2932, amended by #2943).

On December 23, 2004, Defendant filed two motions with proposed orders: (1) an Unopposed Motion for Confidential Treatment of Certain Deposition exhibits and Testimony of Adam Kulick (#2880); and (2) an opposed Motion for a Protective Order Seeking Confidential Treatment of Certain Deposition Exhibits and Testimony of Adam Kulick (#2881). The Court signed the order granting the unopposed motion (#2932), but the docket clerk inadvertently linked it to the opposed motion (#2881) on the docket sheet. Moreover on December 27, 2004 counsel sent an amended proposed order for the opposed motion, which the Court signed as order amending its earlier order (#2943) on January 11, 2005.

To clear the confusion, the Court

ORDERS that its orders designated #2932, entered on January 10, 2005, and #2943, entered on January 11, 2004 are VACATED. The Court further ORDERS that Citigroup, Inc.'s Unopposed Motion for Confidential Treatment of Certain Deposition exhibits and Testimony of Adam Kulick, attached as Exhibit A, (#2880) is GRANTED.

Citigroup, Inc.'s opposed Motion for a Protective Order Seeking Confidential Treatment of Certain Deposition Exhibits and Testimony of Adam Kulick (#2881) remains pending.

SIGNED at Houston, Texas, this 13th day of January, 2005.

MELINDA HARMON
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
