If that judge is not available and the emergency requires prompt action, the matter will be referred to the chief bankruptcy judge or, in his absence, the next senior bankruptcy judge available.
- C. These arrangements do not deprive a bankruptcy judge of jurisdiction of any case, proceeding, or matter, but they are made to expedite the disposition of cases. A bankruptcy judge may try cases and handle other matters for another bankruptcy judge by consent.
- D. The clerk of court will review the case filings monthly to determine the equitable division of cases and recommend to the bankruptcy judges amendments of this order when the existing division of cases appears inequitable.
