18. Houston's Miscellaneous Docket

- A. The miscellaneous docket in the Houston Division consists of those matters that arise before a civil or criminal proceeding is filed and assigned to a judge, like naturalization ceremonies, grants of immunity to witnesses, and in forma pauperis applications.
- B. The miscellaneous docket judge summons and empanels grand and petit juries.
- C. Applications for restraining orders, preliminary injunctions, and similar emergency matters are to be handled by the judge to whom the matter is assigned. If that judge is not available and if the application requires immediate action, the assigned judge's staff will take it to the judge in charge of the miscellaneous docket.
- D. Attorney Admissions applications for the Houston Division shall be presented to the judge assigned the miscellaneous docket.
- E. The miscellaneous docket duties may be exchanged by consent with notice to the clerk and the chief judge.
- F. The 1999 schedule for the miscellaneous Docket is Appendix A.

19. General

- A. If a judge in the Houston Division is disqualified or stands recused, the clerk will randomly assign the matter to another judge in that division. The judges in the Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Laredo, and McAllen Divisions share recusals and disqualifications originating in those divisions. Recusals from the Victoria Division will be assigned to judges in the Corpus Christi Division. Recusals from the Galveston Division will be assigned to judges in the Houston Division. In a non-Houston division having more than one resident judge, the case shall first be reassigned within that division. However, if all judges in that division recuse or are disqualified, the case shall be randomly assigned to a judge in another division, as provided herein.
- B. Nothing in this order deprives a judge of jurisdiction in a matter. A judge may handle matters for another judge by consent.

- C. Matters affecting a liaison assignment should be brought first to the attention of the liaison judge who may handle routine administrative matters. Emergency questions involving court policies will be discussed with the chief judge and may be resolved by the liaison judge and chief judge. The chief judge shall report the emergency to the full court for discussion as promptly as possible.
- D. Judge Head is appointed Chair of the Attorney Admission Fund Committee and Judge Harmon is assigned as a member of that committee.
- E. Judge Hughes is appointed Chair of the Committee on Court Portraits, and Judges Hittner and Harmon are assigned as members of that committee.
- F. Judge Harmon, Judge Atlas, Chief Bankruptcy Judge Schmidt and Magistrate Judge Ormsby shall serve as the judicial officer members of the Court Automation Committee.
- G. The assignment of magistrate judges to district judges is Appendix B.
- H. The chief judge will call meetings of full court as needed and will select the time and place of the meetings. The judges in Houston will meet Tuesdays at noon.

Signed at Laredo, Texas, on December 28, 1998.
