- g. 100% of all bankruptcy adversary proceedings arising under or related to bankruptcy cases assigned to the visiting judge.

7. All Judges

- a. On motion of a party in interest or on its own motion, the judge may transfer a case, an adversary proceeding, or a contested proceeding to another judge in this district. Any recusals will be randomly assigned to another judge within that division.
 - b. Applications for temporary restraining orders, preliminary injunctions, and similar emergency matters will be considered by the judge to whom the bankruptcy case is assigned. If that judge is not available and the emergency requires prompt action, the matter will be referred to any available bankruptcy judge.
 - c. These arrangements do not deprive a bankruptcy judge of jurisdiction of any case, proceeding, or matter, but they are made to expedite the disposition of cases. A bankruptcy judge may try cases and handle other matters for another bankruptcy judge by agreement of the judges.
8. The allocation of cases may be reconsidered at any time and shall be reconsidered for calendar year 2008.

Signed at Houston, Texas this 22nd day of Dec., 2006.

Honorable Karen K. Brown
Chief Bankruptcy Judge
