GENERAL ORDER 2025-6

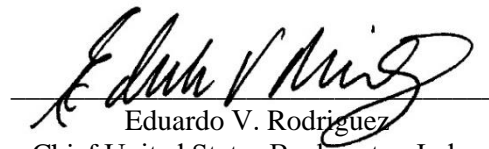

ORDER

In order to provide for more efficient and effective administration of the bankruptcy system, the court may authorize the provision of PACER access to bankruptcy trustees at no charge, to allow trustees better access to court information at a lower cost to the bankruptcy estates. The court therefore finds that the PACER service should be provided at no charge to the following trustees and their employees while serving in their capacity as trustee for the Southern District of Texas.
