

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROVIDER OPEN ENROLLMENT
DECEMBER 1, 2022 to JANUARY 31, 2023

The Court will entertain applications from attorneys seeking to be added to the Court's Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Provider List as a Court approved ADR Provider.

The application period is from December 1, 2022 through January 31, 2023.

To be eligible for initial listing as an ADR provider, the applicant must meet the following minimum qualifications:

- Membership in the bar of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas;
- Licensed to practice law for at least ten years; and
- Completion of at least forty hours training in dispute resolution techniques in an alternative dispute resolution course approved by the State Bar of Texas Minimum Continuing Legal Education department.

See Local Civil Rule 16.4 for a complete listing of requirements.

Information about the Court's ADR Program, including the application form and current ADR Provider list, can be found here.
