4. At least 14 days before the initial pretrial conference, counsel and all parties appearing pro se must complete and file the Joint Discovery/Case Management Plan using the form attached to the Court's procedures. See Fed R. Civ. P. 26(f).
5. As an attachment to the Joint Discovery/Case Management Plan, counsel must complete and file a joint proposed scheduling and docket control order using the form referenced in the Court's procedures. The parties must confer in good faith to seek agreement on deadlines for completion of all pretrial matters. Clearly identify any disagreements with reasons in support of the requests made.
6. By the day of the conference, counsel must interview their clients and read all relevant documents.
7. In advance of the conference, counsel must also discuss alternative dispute resolution with their clients and each other. At the conference, the Court will consider potential ADR methods suited to this case.

- Fully familiar with the facts and the law applicable to the case;
 - Prepared to argue any pending motion and to discuss any anticipated motion;
 - Prepared to discuss potential alternative dispute resolution methods suited to the case; and
 - Authorized to bind the client on all matters discussed at the conference.
10. At or shortly after the conference, the Court will enter a scheduling order and may rule on any pending motions.
 11. The parties are bound by this Order, the papers mentioned in paragraphs 4 and 5 above, and the dates set out in the scheduling and docket control order to be entered in this case.
 12. Failure to comply with this Order may result in sanctions, including dismissal of the action and assessment of expenses.
